

The Do Not Call list is good but not great. I still get a call almost every night at different times. This is very irritating and I shouldn't have to put up with it. If anything needs to be changed, you need to make the law stricter not less strict. Why lessen an effective law? Take a good law and make it better not worse.

Sincerely Fed Up,

Jim Damgen